

New York, March 17.—Daniel P. Davis, negro, accosted a young white woman who stepped from an uptown subway station today, grabbing her by the arm until she screamed. A policeman who interfered, was slashed across the face with a razor by the negro, who fled. Although weak from loss of blood, the policeman gave chase. He fired five shots at the negro, four of which took effect and he fell dead, five blocks from the scene of the encounter.

NOBLEST SCIENCE BEST INSTRUCTION

Pastor Russell's Words of Wisdom in College City.
BEST TEXT BOOK--THE BIBLE

The Value of Learning—its Cost—Various Kinds of Knowledge—The Most Important One—The Best Teacher—The Most Successful Pupils—Graduation Day.

Itasca, N. Y., March 16.—Pastor Russell is here, and in view of this being the seat of Cornell University he took as a text the words of the philosopher, "Wisdom from Above the noblest science, the best instruction." It must be said, however, that the Pastor used various Scriptures, any one of which might have served for a text.

Once the colleges of the world represented, not merely secular education, but the faith, the hope, the religious sentiment of their founders, who were generally religious people. A great change has taken place. Today colleges are ashamed to acknowledge any religious affiliations, and although they stand for moral principles of a high order and represent a form of godliness, nevertheless they are hot-beds of infidelity—disbelief in the Bible as the Divine-inspired Revelation.

This condition of things, the Pastor declared, is deplorable. In his opinion the great institutions of learning throughout the world, so well equipped for the inculcation of faith in God, are, as a matter of fact, doing more to overthrow faith than all other influences combined. He declared it not strange under such circumstances that the cry of "graft" is going up in every civilized land.

The increase of knowledge, of late spread abroad among the masses of mankind, the Pastor believed to be accountable for the increase of vice, which is so great that if it were not for our inventions and police arrangements, this would be the most insecure time in the world's history. He explained that the undermining of faith in the Bible as the Word of God, and the inculcation of the Evolution theory, tend to destroy faith in a personal God, and in rewards and punishments from Him upon the just and upon the unjust. One of the most peculiar things to him was that the very wealthy men of the world have richly endowed their leading colleges, thereby destroying faith and unintentionally leading mankind to social revolution, and more, to the precipice of anarchy.

Sympathy For Higher Critics.

Nothing in the Pastor's words indicated condemnation; but on the contrary, he manifested a deep sympathy for those who are entangled in the snare of Occultism and Evolution. He had once been entangled himself, he said. He had gotten free in time, thank God! Had his experience gone so far as to lead him to doubt the existence of the Supreme Creator, he believed that he would have been as irreversibly lost in Evolution as are many of the noble specimens of our race who are in college chairs.

The Pastor knew well that the primary difficulty is that they cannot believe the Bible to be the inspired Record. So also he had once rejected it, because he thought it to be in harmony with the creeds of the Dark Ages, whose absurdities are more and more apparent to all intelligent, thinking people. Now, the Pastor pronounced himself a most firm believer in the inspiration of the Bible. He had a reason for the faith within him, which he also explained. He said:

One of the surprising things my Bible study revealed was that the Bible supports the teachings of none of the sects, none of the creeds; and that none of the creeds and sects care for or use all of the Bible. Each has made selections of doctrines from the Word of God. Each uses these in its own defense, and each ends in the Bible other teachings supported by other texts, which do not fit in with its own creed. Evidently none of the different sects manufactured the Bible. Had the Calvinists made it up, they would have left out all the texts which teach Divine Free Grace. Had the Arminians—the Methodists, etc.—made up the Bible, they would have put in more Free Grace texts and would have left out those which mention Election.

Had the Catholics made the Bible, they would have added something to teach the immaculate conception of the Virgin Mary, and to prove that she should now be prayed to and worshipped. They would have put in something about indulgences, high mass, low mass, holy water, holy candles, etc. They would have had it mention St. Peter as the first Pope. They would have had it support their theory of Apostolic Succession—that all the bishops are holy apostles, as well as the original Twelve. They would have put in, as would most Protestants, a number of texts telling about the doctrine of the Trinity.

Both Catholics and Protestants would have left out the texts which tell that the dead are asleep, and that their awakening is to come in the resurrection morning. Indeed, they would have omitted everything respecting the resurrection; for it is one of the most difficult matters to explain—how there can be a resurrection of the dead, when they teach that nobody is dead, and that those who seem to die really become more alive than when they were living. Evidently the old Book, which now I prize so highly, was not made by man. The intellectuals already are discarding it, and the religious, finding that they cannot defend their creeds from its pages, are at last discrediting the Word of God!

My hope and prayer and effort are on behalf of the thinking Christian people of today. I would have them see that this wonderful Book, while out of accord with the creeds of Christendom, and the world, is fully in harmony with itself. I would have them see that the great Plan of salvation which the Bible sets forth towers far above all the efforts of puny men, as represented in the creeds of Christendom. I would have them see the glorious fullness of the Bible Message; that its length and breadth and height and depth could not have come from any other quarter than from Above. I would have them see that this "Wisdom from Above" is the noblest science and the best instruction.

Great men of the past have perceived that the Bible has been identified with the best there has ever been of human progress. Many have been their expressions respecting it as the Torch of Liberty and Civilization. But these dear men did not see the real beauty of the Bible, because they did not understand its real Message, for God's due time for the full understanding of that Message is only now here. And now Bible students have advantages in Bible study such as never before were possessed. And now, in God's time, His Word is shining as a light upon the pathway, with a brilliancy that is grand.

Learning's True Value and Cost.

Learning, along all the various lines of present day instruction, is surely valuable. Chemistry has done and is doing much for the world; so are electricity and other applied sciences. I congratulate your city upon having in its midst one of these institutions of learning. I remind you, however, that the truths of science which apply to our every-day life, while very important to our human progress, are not alone sufficient for us.

In other words, in God's order, all humanity are so created as to have mental cravings, appetites and powers which none of the applied sciences, however useful, will satisfy. The human mind must reason, must reflect, must have a theory respecting whence we come and whither we go, and the object of our present existence. These questions, formerly the more prominent ones, have been cast into the shade in recent times.

I understand that in many classes such philosophizing is tabooed. At very most, the searcher for knowledge along these lines is referred to Plato and Socrates, and their immature deductions. No one, seemingly, thinks of attempting to progress in mental philosophy beyond these giants of the past. And yet the Evolution theory tells us that living nearly three thousand years ago, those men must have been much nearer to the monkey state than we are today. Besides all this, those men had none of the Wisdom which comes from Above—claimed none of it.

The Pastor sought to impress the propriety of beginning Bible study afresh, ignoring the creeds of the Dark Ages and permitting the old Book to explain itself—one passage throwing light upon another. He pointed out, however, that the Bible specifically declares that none except the consecrated, the saintly, can have the Holy Spirit; and that not without it can the Bible be fully and clearly understood. His exhortation implied, therefore, he said, that all who desire to have the Wisdom and instruction from Above should first of all recognize a supreme personal Creator, a God of Justice, Wisdom, Love and Power. To Him they should consecrate their hearts, their lives. Then they should take up the study of His Word, desirous of knowing His will that they might do it in every particular.

Graduation Day is Upon Us.

Graduation day is here. The examinations are on. The intellectual are being called upon to answer. What shall it profit a man if he gain all material knowledge and miss the Wisdom that cometh from Above? Unless the Pastor is greatly mistaken, the next few years will show that much of the learning that has been given has not only not been helpful, but really has been injurious. The Pope of Rome is quite right in his declaration that the education which ignores a God and the Divine Purpose in Revelation cannot bring blessing.

If the next few years shall show an increase in the spirit of discontent in the same ratio as the last ten years behind us, it will be a most unhappy world. And that unhappiness will be traceable largely to our colleges. They have exalted material knowledge and applied sciences until the world is hungry for their application, and restlessness, expecting social, political and financial miracles, and chafing if these are not quickly produced.

The Pastor believed that the difficulty has been that the most important element of human nature has been left untaught—the highest organs of the human brain, appertaining to religion, justice, mercy, equity, reverence for God. What college can claim that it has sent forth its students properly cultured along these lines? And if not so trained surely they are in an unbalanced condition, because the education of the heart and the religious proclivities of the human mind have been seriously neglected. Would that I could impulse here in this college city a revival of Bible study, of reverence for God and holy things, but not a reverence for superstition! said the Pastor.

"All Taught of God."

Speaking of the blessings of the Messianic period—the thousand years of Christ's reign—the Scriptures declare that the people shall all be taught of God. Messiah and the Church in glory will be the teachers of the world of mankind. In the Scriptures this double function of the Church is set forth in the promise that the Church shall be kings and priests of God and Christ and shall reign with Him a thousand years—Revelation 20:6.

A Kingdom they shall have, with full authority to rule the world, for the good and uplifting of the subjects—mankind. As priests they will not merely be dignitaries and commanders, but sympathetic instructors of the people. The double office finds its fulfillment in Jesus, the Head of the Church, and proportionately in all the members of His Body. The whole is described as the Melchizedek Priesthood. Melchizedek was a priest upon his throne—a reigning priest, a type of Messiah, the antitypical Priesthood.

The success of that institution is abundantly affirmed by the Bible. The knowledge of God shall fill the whole earth, until none will need to say to his neighbor, Know thou the Lord; for all shall know Me from the least of them to the greatest, saith the Lord. (Isaiah 11:9; Jeremiah 31:34.) With that knowledge will come the responsibility—their trial for life everlasting or death everlasting; for eternal Paradise or eternal destruction. Meantime they will no longer walk by faith, but by sight; for the things promised shall then have come. Then mankind shall see out of the obscurity, and realize the truthfulness of God's promises, when in process of accomplishment.

Some Taught of God Now.

The Bible tells us that some are taught of God in advance of the world—a special class, under private tuition, as it were. These are called a Little Flock. We are distinctly told that they are constituted chiefly of the poor—not many great, not many wise, not many rich, not many learned are pupils in this class, receiving this special instruction. In order to enter this class for special, advanced instruction in the Wisdom from Above, two particular matters are requisite: (1) The pupils must be introduced, recommended, and all their course guaranteed by One who stands as their Advocate—Jesus. (2) They must make a complete surrender of themselves to God, promising that as they learn the Wisdom from Above they will use it in harmony with the Divine will.

This class, beginning with the Apostles, has been in process of development for nearly nineteen centuries and is almost completed, we believe. Whoever would still join this class should make haste to be enrolled—to have his name written in the Lamb's Book of Life—Revelation 3:5; 21:27.

This might be termed a special normal school; for the graduates of this School are to be the instructors of the world of mankind in the next Age—the Royal Priesthood. But in addition to the privilege they will have in giving the world "The Wisdom from Above, the noblest science and best instruction," they will receive qualification for that work by change of nature. "Flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God"; hence these must all be changed by the power of the First Resurrection. Their change is represented by the Apostle when he says, speaking of the First Resurrection class, "It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power; it is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body."—1 Corinthians 15:43, 44.

Our High Calling.

The great honor to be conferred upon the Church—namely, joint-heirship with the Redeemer in His Kingdom and glory—is the Bible's explanation of the Church's special trials. To test our loyalty, our love, our zeal for God and for righteousness, the way to glory now is permitted to be a narrow one. The lessons which the Church must learn are to be learned under circumstances of greater difficulty than the world will experience in its trial. The world will be required to prove obedience merely by abstaining from everything that is wrong, sinful, contrary to God's will. The Church is required to do all that and more—to sacrifice earthly interests—everything—in the service of God and His cause.

This is the same lesson Jesus, the Master Himself, learned. As we read, "Yet learned He obedience by the things which He suffered; and being made perfect He became the Author of eternal salvation to all those who obey Him"—to all followers in His footsteps, whom He graciously assists by the way and encourages with His promises and providences.—Hebrews 2:10; 5:8, 9.

The Bible shows us that at the end of this Age some of the Church will pass beyond the veil to glory, honor and immortality—in the first rank—more than mere conquerors. These are styled the Bride, Messiah's joint-heirs. There will be another and larger class of overcomers, faithful and loyal, but not zealous to the same degree. They will indeed reach the spirit plane, but will not be of the Bride class. They are pictured as servants, the maidens who follow the Bride into the presence of the King. (Psalm 45:14.) Let us choose the better part, that in the examination tests we may have first honors, and hear the Master's "Well done, good and faithful servants; enter into the joys of your Lord."

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS OFF TO DELAWARE

The Newark High School basketball team with Coach Keen left at 11:15 Monday afternoon for Delaware where they will play Delaware High school tonight at the O. W. Keen for the championship of Ohio. The game is the last of the tournament held under the auspices of the Ohio State University in Newark and Delaware are content with the championship and the game is to be played on Tuesday.

The afternoon at 1:30 a special train over the Delaware and Maryland line will take the team and coach to Delaware where they will play Delaware High school tonight at the O. W. Keen for the championship of Ohio. The game is the last of the tournament held under the auspices of the Ohio State University in Newark and Delaware are content with the championship and the game is to be played on Tuesday.

The game will be played at 7 o'clock tonight and the result will be anxiously awaited by the students of Newark. It is the greatest Newark's chances of winning the championship.

C. E. M'DANIELS MEETS LEAGUE OFFICIALS TODAY

A telephone message at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon from Mr. M'Daniels, at Chillicothe, states that Mansfield has withdrawn from the league, refusing to consider any proposition to become a member of the Ohio State League. Mr. M'Daniels states that he refuses to take the Newark franchise in the league, unless Mansfield is in the circuit. If some other town equally as well located in relation to Newark, gets a franchise, Mr. M'Daniels may go into the circuit. From present indications, there will be no baseball here this season.

C. E. M'Daniels left this morning to attend the meeting of the Ohio State League magnates to be held at Chillicothe today and upon his return to Newark local fans will probably know what the future holds for them in the matter of baseball for the 1918 season.

Mr. M'Daniels received a telegram from Frank G. Ward, former owner of the club, and holder of the lease and equipment at Waverly park, offering to sell his holdings at a price which President R. W. Read, head of the State league, might think was reasonable.

As this is practically the only barrier between Mr. M'Daniels and a satisfactory adjustment of the baseball situation, it is possible that an agreement may be reached and the announcement made that Newark will have the club this summer.

Mr. M'Daniels' proposition to the league officials, which is just and reasonable, will probably be accepted by them, inasmuch as Newark's membership in the league is necessary to get Mansfield to join.

If all matters are settled satisfactorily, Mr. M'Daniels will probably secure the services of Charles O'Day, who is anxious to come to Newark with the matter settled. Mr. M'Daniels will be ready to go ahead with the proposition and endeavor to organize a ball club worthy of the support of Newark fans.

GRIFFITH JONES CASE CONTINUED UNTIL FRIDAY

The case of the State of Ohio vs. Griffith Jones, who is charged with shooting Dewey Young, aged 14 years, with intent to kill, was called in "Judge D. M. Jones" court Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock and upon motion of L. C. Russell, attorney for the prosecution, the case was continued until Friday afternoon, March 21, at 1 o'clock.

Paul R. Smith has been retained to defend Mr. Jones.

The man charged with making a fortune in a year—serves to be hung 12 months earlier.

WOMEN ARE MOBBED

men were barred until order had been restored.

The attack of the suffragists was premeditated. Before their wagon entered the parade hundreds of boys had assembled and they caused a riot when the women arrived. Such a seldom witnessed scene of disorder and lawlessness as the women's march is being witnessed here.

The disorder continued despite the efforts of a particularly strong force of police. As soon as the wagon appeared the police surrounded it with a view to protecting the suffragists.

But the crowd outnumbered them 100 to one, and it was impossible to prevent men from throwing their often well-aimed missiles at the harassed women.

One of the makers, Miss Rogers, collapsed as she was being escorted from the parade and her clothes were torn at the point of being torn from her when the police succeeded in rescuing the woman.

It was a real standup fight between the police and the crowds, the former striking on the right and left and endeavoring to arrest the ringleaders. Others among the rioters, however, would come to the aid of those seized by the police and forcibly take them out of their hands.

Suddenly the cry would go up, "Here's one," and the police would light their way to a fainting woman wearing the unpopular badge of the women's social and political union. Every woman thus adorned was greeted with cries of "Incendiary," "shop breaker," "take her up to the Serpentine,"—an artificial lake in the park—while the crowd sang: "Oh, You delectful Doll," and other ragtime melodies.

While these scenes were in progress the spiritual militant suffragists in their costumes of black with orange scarves, attended the afternoon service at St. Paul's. They arrived singly or in groups and left in a body quietly after the service was concluded.

Mrs. Drummond, speaking of the Hyde Park affair today, said it began by some boys shouting "Hello, here's Mother Drummond." She declared that the crowd had shown no hostility and that the trouble was caused by the police in interfering with free speech and, in their officious manner, trying to escort the suffragists from the park.

Mrs. Drummond concluded by saying: "We didn't want an escort and we don't fear the mob, and because we trusted the mob and refused an escort the police assaulted us."

At Hampstead Heath another suffragist meeting was broken up although the crowd did not attempt any violence. The people who had assembled satisfied themselves with drowning the women's speeches by shouting, singing and booing. The police finally had to order the women away.

"PATRICK" MAY BE COGNOMEN OF NEW ARRIVAL

Ever since the new son and heir arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Livingston on Stanberry street two weeks ago, the proud father has been deluged with suggestions as to the proper name which should be bestowed upon the new arrival. Mr. Livingston finally met his friend and neighbor Mr. Clark and the latter suggested that as Monday was St. Patrick's day and the boy who looks like his God had not yet been named, to more appropriate one should be found than the one which bears the name of the longed-for saint who is associated with having driven the snakes from Ireland. Mr. Livingston informed his friends that many of the prominent had borne the name of Patrick. Mr. Livingston promised to give the matter due consideration and now it is still there will soon be a christening party and a little Patrick Livingston will be the result.

TRY IT! SAGE TEA DARKENS GRAY HAIR BEAUTIFULLY

Druggist Says When Mixed with Sulphur Prevents Dandruff and Falling Hair.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, then left to age and carefully filtered will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; removes every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching, and falling hair.

Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss. Some druggists make their own, but it isn't nearly so nice as "Wyeth's."

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not so desirable as the hair of youth, it is a fact that it is not so attractive. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur no one can tell because it does it so naturally; so soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Do this tonight and by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, after another application or two it will be restored to its natural color and be even more glossy, soft and luxuriant than ever.

Local druggists say they are selling lots of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur," it surely helps folks appear years younger. Hall's Drug Store, 10 North Side Square, agent.

It has been said that hard work for a weak, sickly woman is traffic in flesh and blood. It makes little difference whether the field of work is at home or elsewhere; but if every woman in the world who goes about her work with backache, headache, nervousness, bearing down pains and the blues, would remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound remedies the cause of such troubles, work would become a pleasure and life worth living.

The question was: "Resolved, That All Cities of Ohio Having a Population of 15,000 or Over Should Adopt a Commission Form of Municipal Government." Lyman C. Pinkerton, Roy B. Derr and Robert R. Weber of Denison presented the affirmative side, and Fred A. Hinkle of Hamilton, Clarence W. Kerr of Greenville, and Harry H. Freeman of Buffalo, N. Y., spoke for Miami against the proposition. Supt. SATURDAY NIGHT'S SHOW.

Two good audiences saw a matinee and evening performance of "Brewster's Millions," a piece that just a few years ago took audiences by storm, in the then rather startlingly novel way of treating a subject that had almost become hackneyed on the American stage.

The situations at times during the progress of the piece give opportunity for great dramatic force, especially the yacht scene in the next to last act.

The company Saturday was one which did the work assigned them evidently to the satisfaction of the audiences and that is all that can be required of a theatrical troupe, as the ones who pay the production are the ones to be taken into consideration.

TO AUDITORIUM PATRONS:

In presenting Werba and Luescher's comedy operetta, "The Rose Maid," tomorrow night, I can personally guarantee Newark playgoers one of the delightful musical treats of the season. Werba and Luescher, its producers, sent us "The Spring Maid," in August and it was a charming and most pleasing performance. In "The Rose Maid" you will see an attraction fully as good and considered by many to be far superior to its sister opera, "The Spring Maid." As the season is rapidly drawing to a close and good high class attractions are becoming very scarce, I sincerely trust all lovers of musical plays will take advantage of the treat in store for them tomorrow night. The company is a large one and the production magnificent. The orchestra will be augmented to fourteen for this occasion. Yours very truly, F. E. JOHNSON, Manager Auditorium.

THE ROSE MAID: FULL OF GOOD THINGS.

As full of good things as a Christmas stocking is "The Rose Maid," Werba and Luescher's most recent big musical success which took New York last winter by storm and continued without loss of patronage right through the hot weather and into its second season. This charming opera will play an engagement at the Auditorium on Tuesday, March 18, and its managers promise that the production will be as thorough in every detail as "The Rose Maid" bids fair to revolutionize comic opera. So stupendous have its managers made the production that a new pace has been set for producers of light opera. The stage settings for the two great acts required to unfold its plot, have inspired unusual descriptive stories. The first takes place in the glittering salon of the Duke of Barchester's London palace and discloses an extravagant revel of society Bohemians. The stage is filled with beautiful women gowned in the latest Parisian creations and English army officers in their brilliant uniforms. A number of Tivoli girls perform one of their famous dances and all the pretty gaily girls of London are present at the last bachelor party given by this young Duke. The scene leads naturally into the story of the gay life of the young nobleman and his engagement to the Princess Hilda until he is suddenly left stranded by his favorite uncle who disinherited him and refused to pay his debts.

Act two discloses the lawn in front of a mammoth hotel in Ostend, one of Europe's most fashionable seashore resorts. Here is realism run riot. The great main entrance of the hotel has been faithfully reproduced with its giant staircase, foyers and reception halls. Outside are its broad verandas and an open air restaurant, where the wells of the continent are dining. In the rear is a superb perspective showing the broad corridors, furnished with a splendor that reminds one of the famous "Peacock Alley" of the Waldorf-Astoria, New York's fashionable trysting place of the "400."

"The Rose Maid" introduces another Viennese waltz king, Barro Granichstaedten, to this country and while he is the youngest of them all, his work is declared to be the most musically of the entire lot. The prettiness and human of the story furnish an inspiration to the composer to supply sympathetic melodies for every episode. "The Rose Waltz" is only one of the many captivating songs. There is the amusing "Happy Family" song in which the "Kute Kiddies" play an important part; the laughable "Money Talks" quintet for five male comedians, the delicious "Sweethearts, Wives and Good Fellows" number, the "Post a Heart," the galloping "Calvary Song," "The Live for You Alone Duet," the sensational waltz trio danced on the stairs and many other showy numbers encoored nightly during the record run of the opera at the Globe theatre, New York.

CHARLIE GRAPEWIN IN "BETWEEN SHOWERS."

Charlie Grapewin, originator of the character of Mr. Pipp, will be seen at the Auditorium Saturday matinee and night, March 22, in P. E. Dumm's three-act farce, "Between Showers." In the support of Mr. Grapewin are Mike Donlin of the Philadelphia National League team, and Anna Chance, the dainty comedienne.

The plot is new and original, with many novel situations and scenes. Mr. Grapewin, by whom the play is being produced, has provided an exceptional supporting company and an elaborate scenic investiture.

The Auditorium will be open Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week offering an excellent program of photoplays. A dinner set will be given away Wednesday and Thursday and there will be a feature film presented Friday.

ORPHEUM THEATRE.

A return engagement of "The Suffragettes," the big all girl show that made such a big hit on the first three days of the week of March 2. There will be a complete change in the bill from start to finish. All new songs, new comedy by the favorite lady comedienne, Miss Dudley, the character actress who can furnish the fun, Miss Parsons in some of her late song hits; Miss Frankie Siegle, the lady with the voice; Miss Cecil Grey, and the Grey Sisters will have all new songs and musical numbers to offer. Miss Dunlap, the lady with the harp solos, will prove quite entertaining to those lovers of the best of music. There will be a complete change of scenic effects for both acts of the little play; also many changes in the costumes. Souvenir matinee for the ladies on Tuesday when some handsome pieces of china are to be given away. The country store will be on Wednesday night instead of Friday. Order seats by phone 1266.

The first theatre in Montenegro was opened at the coronation of King Nicholas and the first play produced was written by the king himself.

PAULINE ON RETIRED LIST.

Taft's Cow Cows Back to Her Old Wisconsin Farm.

Washington.—Pauline Wayne, President Taft's famous Holstein cow, will follow him into retirement March 4. The president called in Senator Isaac Stephenson of Wisconsin, who two years ago took Pauline to the White House, and gave her back to her former owner.

Pauline has not been in the best of health in several months. President Taft believes that if she is taken back to Wisconsin and put on Senator Stephenson's farm again her youthful vigor will revive. The senator was glad to recover Pauline, as she had supplied milk to the family of the president for two years, and he thought she would add dignity to his herd.

The latest dreadnought, the Fuso, being built in Japan, will be able to throw a broadside three times heavier than that of the original dreadnought.

FIRST THINGS

The first distinction of Ann, an evangelist, was to leave the church, and become an avowed agnostic and enemy of Christianity. She was Dr. Monro's daughter, who was born in Virginia eighty-one years ago today, and died in 1897. He was a descendant of the Washington family and of Thomas Stone, a signer of the Declaration of Independence. Graduating from Harvard Divinity School in 1854, he became minister of a Washington congregation. But he was compelled to leave because of his attacks on slavery. Half a century ago he was engaged as minister of South Place Chapel in London, retaining that post until 1897, with the exception of a period spent as New York World correspondent in the Franco-Prussian war. In his latter years Dr. Conway preached agnosticism to large audiences, and was author of many books on the subject, including a monumental life of Thomas Paine. Other famous clergyman who have left the church to make war on their former faith include the late Samuel D. Parnham, long president of the American Free Thought Federation; Dr. Mangsarian of Chicago; Dr. Roberts of the Church of This World in Kansas City; and Joseph McCabe, former priest and brother of a distinguished editor, who is now a leader of the English rationalist movement.

He Kidnaped St. Patrick.

Michael, the Irish chieftain who kidnaped St. Patrick, ended his life by throwing himself into the flames that were destroying his castle. He had previously thrown all his personal belongings into the fire, hearing that St. Patrick was coming to visit him. The saint saw the work of destruction from a nearby hill, but too late to prevent Michael's self destruction.

GOOD ROADS COURSE A SUCCESS

Contractors, engineers, inspectors, county commissioners, and others interested in good roads, to the number of sixty were in attendance at the winter course in highway engineering at the Ohio State University, which ended March 6. In addition, the students in the regular courses in engineering at the University took advantage of this special instruction, which consisted of lectures by noted highway experts and demonstrations of methods of road construction. This winter course, the first of its kind ever held in the state, has been a decided success, surpassing the expectations of those who planned and inaugurated the movement. The Ohio Good Roads Federation provided the money for this initial course and the legislature has been asked to approprate money to continue the work next year.

Ohio is among the first of the states to give special instruction in this kind. It is interesting to note in this connection that the University offers an excellent training to those who wish to become highway engineers as it gives instruction in the fundamentals of road and street building, in highway surveying, concrete and stone, and in highway materials. In addition, those who wish to specialize have the State Highway Testing Laboratory at hand for testing materials in advanced investigations, and have the opportunity to engage in practical highway construction in summer vacations instead of going to camp. Former students are now holding responsible positions in highway departments of both New York and Ohio.

BERNARD KATES HAS CLOSE CALL

Bernard Kates, age 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kates of North Fourth street, was near death Saturday afternoon when he was found in an unconscious condition in the Lansing block suffering from some form of poisoning. Dr. Cosner, who was called, pronounced the young man's condition critical and he was rushed to the Sanitarium where heroic measures were resorted to in an effort to save his life.

Kates was found about 4 o'clock by two young men acquaintances in a room occupied by Omar Patterson, agent for a tailoring firm and at that time was unconscious. When the physician reached his side he was all but lifeless. The cause of his condition is not fully known though it is believed he was suffering from some form of poisoning.

After being removed to the hospital young Kates improved rapidly and shortly before midnight was able to be removed to his home. He was much improved Monday and will be able to be around as usual in a few days.

MR. BEGGS TALKS TO Y. M. C. A. BOYS AT SUNDAY MEET

About 100 boys attended the meeting yesterday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. Frank L. Beggs of the Western Reserve University, who is a very interesting and practical talker, by illustrations, he pointed out to the boys how the Newark of the future depended entirely upon them. Beggs' talk was full of interesting and instructive. There will be no meeting on next Sunday, but the following Saturday, March 21st, the usual meeting will be held.

HARVEY D. ORR WILL SUCCEED JOHN C. KREIG

TRUSTEES OF CHILDREN'S HOME DECIDE TO MAKE CHANGE IN SUPERINTENDENCY.

Mr. Kreig Has Made a Most Acceptable Official and His Regime Has Been of a High Standard.

At a called meeting of the board of trustees of the Children's Home, held Saturday afternoon, Harvey D. Orr, a well known farmer of Franklin township, was elected superintendent of the home and his wife, Mrs. John C. Orr, succeeded Mr. Kreig.

J. C. KREIG.

Kreig, who has been in charge of the institution for some years past. The new appointee will assume his duties June 1st, and is considered in every way a competent man for the position.

The retiring superintendent, John C. Kreig, during his incumbency has raised the standard of efficient administration of the home's affairs to a very high degree, so that the institution is considered one of the very best managed of its kind in the state.

He has had a high sense of pride in the accomplishment of everything that would tend to economy without any lack of proper care of the country's wards, and with the aid of his excellent wife has succeeded in surrounding the children with influences that were of the best sense, "home-like," and reduced the "institutional" atmosphere to a minimum.

For many years he has found good homes, where children have gone to grow into useful citizens, and for those who have been under his charge he has provided at all times comfort, instruction and entertainment, so that his ideals may be a high mark to the attainment of which his successor may well direct his best efforts.

After June 1st Mr. Kreig expects to become associated with the New King company as he is a member of that firm.

LAIRD WILL BE CHARGED WITH ENTERING HOUSE

Jeff Laird, arrested Saturday night on a charge of drunk and petit larceny, was fined in police court Monday morning on the drunk charge and will be held pending the filing of an affidavit by Dr. Stone of East Newark, charging burglary. Dr. Stone found Laird in his office about 10 o'clock and the man had a number of articles of more or less value, in his pockets. An officer was called and the man arrested.

SWAT FLIES

The fly is on his way. Indeed the first one has arrived. He was so hungry it was very easy to kill him. Would that it was ever thus! How many millions of flies shall we destroy this season? If only we kill all the early flies there will not be many millions left for the summer months; or, at least, so scientists tell us.

Let us begin our fly-killing campaign early in Newark. The first move in this direction is to clean out the cellars, the dark corners in back yards and stables, burning all the rubbish and refuse that there may be no breeding place for flies.

KING GEORGE IS ASSASSINATED AT SALONIKA TODAY

Salonika, March 18.—King George of Greece was assassinated here this afternoon.

King George, who had taken personal command of his troops during the earlier period of the war had been here since December, when the Turkish fortress was occupied by the Greeks after a short siege. The Queen of Greece also had been here and has paid great attention to the care of the sick and wounded.

King George in December had a meeting here with King Ferdinand of Bulgaria to discuss the fate of the captured Turkish territory after the war.

King George was in his 68th year and had ruled 50 years. He was a brother of the Queen Mother Alexandra of England, and a son of the late King of Denmark. He was chosen king of the Hellenes in 1863 in succession to Otho the First.

A previous attempt to assassinate him was made in 1898, but was frustrated. King George was married in October, 1897, to Princess Olga, eldest daughter of the Grand Duke Constantine of Russia, a brother of the late Emperor Alexander.

Crown Prince Constantine, who has been in command of the Greek troops throughout the hostilities, and who was at the head of the army which recently captured the Turkish fortress of Janina, with its garrison of 32,000 men, will be the successor of his father. His wife is Princess Sofia, a daughter of the German Emperor.

Since the occupation of Salonika by the Greeks there has been some friction between them and their Bulgarian allies, but it was thought that this would eventually be overcome during the negotiations for the partition of Turkish territory.

King George was often rated as an autocratic monarch but in spirit he was democratic and did much for the prosperity of Greece which advanced rapidly under his rule. He took great interest in the organization of the defensive forces of the country and with the assistance of the Crown Prince brought the army to the state of efficiency which enabled it to cover the resistance at the beginning of the war. His name was mentioned after hostilities broke out for the presidency of the permanent organization of the states of Bulgaria, Serbia, Montenegro and Greece.

When George arrived in Salonika on November 12 with Prince Constantine and Prince George, he was warmly greeted by the Greek Metropolitan and the senior officers of his army. All the houses were decorated with Greek flags and thousands of people assembled to cheer him. In an interview King George at that time said Greece after the war would have a frontier north of Salonika and Monastir and he was inclined to make Salonika a free port.

COURT OF APPEALS IS IN SESSION

Taken Up Case Involving Ownership of Lands Adjacent to Buckeye Lake—Court House News.

On Tuesday the Court of Appeals took up the trial of the case of Isaac Jones v. Wm. P. Myers and Isaac Jones v. James T. Haynes. The suits were brought to determine the ownership of certain lands adjacent to Buckeye Lake, this county. The court heard the evidence and took the case under advisement.

The case of the Consumers Brewing Company v. Mary V. Hardway, was continued until next term of court. This suit involves the title to certain real estate on the north side of the square, this city.

Ira Thorp v. Frank J. Harrington; motion to continue, overruled. The case will stand for trial Wednesday.

Supreme Court Decision.
In the Supreme court two weeks ago was argued the case of Edward Kibler, guardian of Edwin S. Hand vs. Clara C. Hand, Edward Kibler, Jr., appealing for the plaintiff and Jesse A. Flory for the defendant. The case involved the question whether or not a wife is a necessary party in suits to partition land. The circuit court had ruled against the plaintiff which has prevailed in Ohio for many years. By decision of the highest court today, this decision is reversed, the Supreme

SIX HURT IN THE WRECK

FREIGHT DEPOT REMOVED TO CAR BARN

The freight offices of the Ohio Electric road were removed Monday night to the car barns in West Church street, from which point all regular freight will be shipped, and to which all regular freight will be sent and unloaded.

Dispatch freight can, however, be sent to the interurban station and billed out on the local cars, but the regular freight runs will be to and from the car barns.

FULTON BILL IS BURIED

Committee Sends It to Its Death by Vote of 8 to 5

STATE ADMINISTRATION

Requested That No General Gerrymander be Made—$1,200,000 for State Office Building is Urged.

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM.

Congressional gerrymander bill killed in house committee; special bill to provide for extra district.
Proposal made that $1,200,000 be spent on new buildings to accommodate departments crowded out of capitol and annex.
Stringent measure introduced to provide for the collection of delinquent taxes and the prevention of dodging.
Bill offered providing for the rehabilitation of the tax inquisitor outlawed several years ago.
Bill presented providing for the regulation of women's dress as a preventative of immorality.

Columbus, O., March 18.—No general gerrymander of the congressional districts will be made at this session of the legislature. At the behest of the state administration, the house committee on federal relations last night buried the Fulton gerrymander bill.

By a vote of eight to five, the committee refused to report the bill to the house. The vote demonstrated that Chairman Fulton does not control the committee. Only four members supported his motion to report out the bill, and two of these were Republicans, Thatcher of Clinton, and Jenkins of Madison. The others were Berne of Williams and Welsh of Ottawa. Those who opposed making a partisan realignment of district boundaries were Mills of Cuyahoga, Black of Wyandot, Dixon of Washington, Acker of Hocking, Holl of Auglaize, Clark of Hamilton, Kemmerer of Carroll. Mr. Kemmerer was the only Republican voting against the proposed Democratic gerrymander.

Discussion in committee favored making a Twenty-second district out of the territory embraced in the Twentieth and Twenty-first districts. Instead of continuing to elect a congressman at large. This probably will be done by special bill.

At the last session a similar bill by Representative Fulton, passed the house, but failed in the senate. None of the 21 congressional districts has been changed since 1891, except the Eleventh and Twelfth. In 1900, Fairfield county was transferred from the Twelfth to the Eleventh district.

That the state jail sink $1,200,000 in an office building for the accommodation and housing of departments which have been crowded out of the state house and annex is proposed in the bill Representative William Behne of William county introduced in the special committee, which has re-

BILL INTRODUCED IN OHIO LEGISLATURE WOULD REGULATE FEMALE GARB

Columbus, March 18.—Women will not properly clothe themselves unless compelled to do so, said Representative Louis H. Capelle of Cincinnati, who last evening introduced a bill in the legislature providing for the establishment of a commission to prescribe what clothes women may wear. "For several years clergymen have been calling attention to the immodest fashions and asking women for their own self respect to be more reasonable in their dress in public. The only reply of the women is to go further in immodest display," said Capelle.

"It is these women who cry out that men are animals and pursue them after they have lured them on by every cunning device. I do not mean to condemn all women but it seems to me there are enough who do not approve of the prevailing styles of dress to restrain their sisters from what has been pronounced by authorities to be the most prolific cause of immorality."

"In various parts of the country we find that a pretended effort to reduce vice not by demanding that women wear modest clothing but by compelling their employers to furnish them with clothes to compete with women who have copied the immodest fashions."

"Women should understand that to display themselves on the street before men is different from laxity in the presence of their own sex. The sooner they understand, the sooner this so-called wave of immorality will subside."

The letter said in part: "Ever since I was a youngster I have been deeply interested in our method of financial legislation. This business of building up the expenses of the nation, piece by piece will certainly lead us to error and perhaps embarrassment."

Washington, March 18.—President Wilson and the cabinet worked two hours today over a statement defining the attitude of the United States toward the Chinese so-called Six-Power loan. A statement, it was said, would not be given out before tomorrow. The President today took under advisement the question of attending the unveiling of a memorial to the dead heroes of the battleship Maine in New York on Decoration Day.

Fined $10 and Costs.
Joe Aharino was fined $10 and costs by Judge D. M. Jones Tuesday morning for being charged of cruelty to a horse, filed by Humane Officer J. P. Harris.

WILSON FAVORS BUDGET SYSTEM FOR THE CONDUCT OF GOVERNMENT FINANCES

Washington, March 18.—President Wilson is in favor of a budget system for the conduct of the government finances. He made public today a letter written on January 30 from Trenton to Senator Tillman expressing the hope that a budget system might be worked out after he got to Washington.

The letter said in part: "Ever since I was a youngster I have been deeply interested in our method of financial legislation. This business of building up the expenses of the nation, piece by piece will certainly lead us to error and perhaps embarrassment."

City Auditor William Wulfoop submitted his annual report, a printed pamphlet, showing the business transactions in his office in the year 1912.

Service Director McCarthy sent to council a resolution adopted by himself, increasing the pay of the cemetery employees. The foreman was granted an increase from 20 to 25 cents per hour, the regular laborers from 15 to 20 cents per hour, the common laborers increased to 15 to 20 cents per hour. Upon Councilman Dwyer's motion, council approved the action of the service director and the increase will become effective April 1. The increase was provided for in the January appropriation ordinance.

Council Clerk Franklin reported that notices had been served on property owners on streets where improvements are proposed. Edward Wilson and nine property owners on Baltimore street asked for sidewalks from Allen to Cedar. Eli Hull and 25 property owners in Linden avenue asked council to pave that street from Rapp and 1200 or more property owners in the northwestern part of the city asked council to give the Ohio Electric a franchise to operate a street car line in Hoover street from Fourth to Tenth, on Tenth street to Granville and on Granville to the corporation line. Mary A. Hilliards and 19 property owners in Eighth street protested against the paving of that street from Locust to Church street until a sanitary sewer is constructed. Francis F. Funk and three property owners in Eastern avenue and Webb street asked for a sewer in Webb street. Henry Smith and 12 property owners on the west side of Madison avenue asked council to repeal the ordinance to pave that street from

KOHLER IS DISMISSED FROM FORCE

"Golden Rule" Chief Says He Will Take His Medicine

LONG IN CITY SERVICE

Having Been Appointed by the Late Tom Johnson—Found Guilty of Gross Immorality.

Cleveland, O., March 18.—Fred Kohler, chief of police, was found guilty of gross immorality, conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman and conduct subversive to the good order and discipline of the police department, by the civil service commission late yesterday afternoon. The commission dismissed him from his office.

In passing sentence, the commissioners said that, had they power to do so, they would add a permit for the discharged official to receive the full pension of a chief of police.

Kohler last night packed up his personal belongings at police headquarters and left for all time the station, where for ten years he has been in supreme command. He made no comment on the verdict.

"There will be no appeal from the decision," said W. H. Boyd, Kohler's attorney.

Mayor Baker announced last night Inspector W. S. Rowe would continue in temporary charge of the police force.

The mayor will appoint a permanent head almost immediately. Rowe and Captains Schmunk and Shattuck were the men most frequently mentioned last night as probable of selection.

Kohler will retire on half pension, $62.50 a month. In view of the recommendation of the civil service commission and considerable public sentiment for a full pension, some movement in this direction may be attempted.

Under the statute and the rules of the trustees of the pension fund, lawyers said last night, there is no way in which Kohler legally can draw full pension, which would be $125 a month.

Mrs. Kohler was notified of the outcome of the trial at her home last night. She declined to discuss a rumor current down town that she would sue for a divorce.

Chief of Police Kohler, who gained countrywide fame because of his "Golden Rule" and other police policies, stated today that he would not appeal his case.

"I can take my medicine without squawking," was the comment of the "best chief" when the verdict was made known to him.

Kohler has been chief of police of Cleveland for ten years and has been on the force for twenty four years. He was made chief by the late Tom L. Johnson, four times mayor of Cleveland, of whom he was a great personal friend.

The charges upon which Kohler was dismissed were presented at a trial before the civil service commission which lasted six days. Briefly they were based on the allegations that Kohler had been found alone one night last June with the wife of Samuel D. Scheerer, by her husband, in their home. In reading the verdict, the commission warmly praised the chief's work as police head of the department, as did Mayor Baker in a statement given out today.

HARVEY D. ORR WILL SUCCEED JOHN C. KREIG

TRUSTEES OF CHILDREN'S HOME DECIDE TO MAKE CHANGE IN SUPERINTENDENCY.

Mr. Kreig Has Made a Most Acceptable Official and His Regime Has Been of a High Standard.

At a called meeting of the board of trustees of the Children's Home and Saturday afternoon, Harvey D. Orr, a well known farmer of Franklin township, was elected superintendent of the home and his wife, Mrs. Jean C. Orr, was elected matron to succeed Mr. Kreig.

J. C. KRIEG.

Krieg, who has been in charge of the institution for some years past. The new appointment will assume his duties June 1st, and is considered in every way a competent man for the position.

The retiring superintendent, John C. Kreig, during his incumbency has raised the standard of efficient administration of the home's affairs to a very high degree, so that the institution is considered one of the very best managed of its kind in the state.

He has had a high sense of pride in the accomplishment of everything that would tend to economy without any lack of proper care of the country's wards, and with the aid of his excellent wife, succeeded in surrounding the institution with incidents that were the best sense, "home-like," and raised the institutional atmosphere to a minimum.

For many years he has found good homes, where children have gone to grow into useful citizens, and for those who have been under his charge he has provided at all times comfort, instruction and entertainment, so that his ideals may be a high mark to the attainment of which his successor may well direct his best efforts.

After June 1st Mr. Kreig expects to become associated with the New King company, as he is a member of that firm.

PALM SUNDAY CELEBRATED IN LOCAL CHURCHES

Sunday was celebrated as Palm Sunday and in all the Catholic churches and at the Episcopal church. Palm branches were distributed to the congregations. The palms were blessed by the Catholic churches just before the second mass and the distribution was made then. Palm Sunday is solemnized in commemoration of the triumphal entry of Christ into Jerusalem, when His followers and disciples traced a path of palm branches for Him.

Palm Sunday marked the last week of Lent, or Holy Week, as it is known to Catholics, and many of the churches will hold special services descriptive of the Passion and death. On Thursday morning at St. Francis Sales church, Holy Thursday, the day on which Christ instituted the sacrament of the Eucharist, will be celebrated with a procession of the Blessed Sacrament about the church with flowers and the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will be had until Good Friday morning.

Lent concludes with Easter Sunday, which is being celebrated at possible day, with one's year. In spite of the early weather, and possible inclement weather, a large number of people are expected to fill orders for a display of finery.

SWAT FLIES

The fly is on his way. Indeed the first one has arrived. He was so large that it was very easy to kill him. Would that it was ever thus! How many millions of flies shall we destroy this season? It only we kill all the early flies there will not be many millions left for the summer months, or, at least, so scientists tell us.

Let us begin our fly-killing campaign early in Newark. The first move in this direction is to clean out the cellars, the dark corners in back yards and stables, burning all the rubbish and refuse that there may be no breeding place for flies.

TOWN IMPROVEMENT.

The odor of the fir tree disgusts the cotton boll weevil. The Southern cotton fields are being cleared of the pests by planting these trees about them.
